

Accredited International Safe Community Certifier

Name: Max Louis Vosskuhler

Country: United States of America

Email address: isafeschools@outlook.com

Skype address: max.vosskuhler

Background:

- Graduate of University of Arizona, Bachelor of Science – Chemistry, Tucson, AZ USA 1992.
- Graduate of Karolinska Institutet, School of Public Health, MSc Safety Promotion, Stockholm, Sweden in 2004.
- Completed PhD Courses in Social Medicine, Epidemiology and Safe Community Environments at Karolinska Institutet, School of Public Health, Stockholm, Sweden 2004 – 2008.

Safe Community Experiences:

- Vice President and Co-Creator of PeaceBuilders[®] International, a World Health Organization – VIP recommended, effective Whole School, Climate Change, Violent Prevention Program for schools from Pre-Kindergarten through High School in 35 countries, Arizona, USA from 1993 – 2006.
- Program Co-creator and Founder of International Safe Schools in Collaboration with the World Health Organization Collaborating Centre for Community Safety Promotion (WHO CC CSP), Stockholm, Sweden and Tucson, AZ USA in 2001.
- Establishing Peaceful Resources Center, a non-profit/non-governmental organization, which is an Affiliated Safe Community Support Centre (2006), responsible for International Safe Schools Development, Certification and Designation for the WHO CC CSP in Arizona, USA 2002.
- Lead creation and editing of International Safe Schools Program, indicators, policies, research, and designation of both schools and Certifying Centres, from 2002 to present.

WHO CC CSP Training as Certifier:

Experience as ISC Certifier: Guldbrand Skjönberg, Tutor & Prof. Joon Pil Cho, Tutor

Number of designated communities as Certifier: 1, as Co-certifier: 1