

Financial Sub-district Community

Application Statement to Re-designate as a member of the International Safe Community Network

—Financial Sub-district, Xicheng District, Beijing, P.R. China

March, 15, 2013

WHO Collaborating Centre on Community Safety Promotion (CCCSP):

Financial Sub-district Community initiated “Safe Community Establishment” activities since 2005, officially became one of the first batch of “National Safe Community” in September 2007, and won the title of the 140th International Safe Community Network Membership awarded by WHO CCCSP on June 27, 2008.

After obtaining the certification, Financial Sub-district Community continues to take injury prevention and safety promotion intervening measures for the safety of housing, workplace, firefighting, society, schools, traffic, the handicapped, and the elderly in accordance with the guidelines of International Safety Community as well as based on the actual situations of the community.

Over the past five years, Financial Sub-district Community has kept its commitment to unremittingly promoting safe community establishment, cooperating with scientific research institutions, educational organizations, local volunteer organizations and enterprises, and actively participating in the activities related to domestic and foreign safe communities. Furthermore, Financial Sub-district Community has attached great importance to the exchange of experience, which leads to the result that the rate of injuries among the residents in the Community reduced gradually while the resident satisfaction increased year by year.

We make a formal commitment to continuously promoting the establishment of Financial Sub-district Safe Community. Therefore, with the guidance and assistance of China Occupational Safety and Health Association (Affiliate Support Centre for the WHO CCCSP), Financial Sub-district Community formally applies to WHO CCCSP for ISC re-designation. Moreover, the Community will continue to promote safe community establishment under the guidance of WHO CCCSP and invite SCFNZ take the re-designation progress on behalf of WHO CCCSP.

Yours Sincerely!

Mr. Wang Xu, Director of Financial Sub-district Administrative Office
